When you're cooking for just yourself or one other person, it can sometimes feel like more work than it's worth. Many recipes are made for big families or dinner parties in mind, so it's easy to fall into the habit of frozen meals, takeout, or processed snacks.

But the truth is, cooking for one or two can be fun, easy, and healthier than you might think. With a little planning and a few helpful tips, you can learn to make tasty, satisfying meals without a lot of fuss.

Keep It Simple

You don't need fancy recipes or long ingredient lists. Focus on easy meals with a few fresh ingredients. Dishes like omelets, sandwiches, soups, and salads can be made in minutes and changed up depending on what you have in your refrigerator.

For example, a salad doesn't have to be just lettuce and dressing. Add chopped veggies, cheese, cooked chicken, or beans for a twist on an old favorite. Soups are another great choice; you can make a big pot, enjoy it for a couple of days, and freeze the rest for later.

Use Your Freezer

Your freezer is your best friend when cooking for one or two. You can freeze extra portions of soups, casseroles, or cooked meats to use on busy days. Try making a batch of something you love, and freeze leftovers in single servings. That way, you'll have a homemade meal ready whenever you need it.

You can also buy frozen fruits and vegetables. They're picked at their peak and are just as healthy as fresh. They won't spoil as quickly, and you can use just what you need when you need it.

Shop Smart

When shopping, look for ingredients you can use for more than one meal. A bag of spinach can go in salads, omelets, and sandwiches. A rotisserie chicken can become dinner one night, then lunch the next day in a wrap or salad. Buying smaller amounts from the deli, produce stand, or meat counter can also help you avoid waste.

Enjoy the Experience

Cooking for yourself or a loved one is a wonderful way to care for your health and happiness. Put on your favorite music, try a new recipe once in a while, and remember: it doesn't have to be fancy to be good. After all, good food is one of life's simple pleasures, no matter how many people are at the table!

TEDTALKS

IDEAS WORTH SPREADING

TEDTalks are short video presentations introducing us to new ideas or presenting a fresh perspective on something we already know. Scientists, researchers, technologists, artists, designers, and others aim to stir our curiosity and get us talking. The goal is to present “Ideas Worth Spreading” to an audience of people open to being inspired or possibly wanting an introduction to a new topic.

If this sounds interesting, join us for an hour once a month. We watch several short videos on a single topic and discuss how it relates to us. It’s fun and often leads to thinking about ideas we never considered before.

1st Thursday of each month, 10:30 AM at West 7th

February 5: Rediscovering play in adulthood

March 5: Curiosity; the thrill of not knowing the answers

April 2: What happens to your brain when . . .

MYSTERY MATINEE

4th Tuesdays of every month at Merriam Park Community Center beginning at 2:00 PM

Movie Synopses

February 24: Wake Up Dead Man; a Knives Out Mystery; Detective Benoit Blanc investigates a mystery involving a corrupt reverend, a boxer-turned-priest, and a precious jewel worth tens of millions of dollars.

March 24: La La Land

American musical romantic comedy-drama. A struggling jazz pianist and an aspiring actress meet and fall in love while pursuing their dreams in Los Angeles.

April 28: Enola Homes; PG 13

When Enola Holmes, Sherlock’s sister, discovers her mother is missing, she endeavors to find her, becoming a super-sleuth in her own right as she outwits her famous brother and unravels a dangerous conspiracy.

New Volunteer Opportunity Launching

Help Make a Difference in the Lives of Older Adults!

We’re excited to announce the launch of a brand-new community initiative: Volunteer Chore and Transportation Services for older adults in our area! As our community grows, so does the need for support for our aging neighbors. This new program is designed to help older adults maintain their independence and quality of life by offering free rides to essential appointments and assistance with small household chores—all provided by caring volunteers like you.

This service is made possible thanks to generous funding from the Minnesota Live Well at Home Grant.

Volunteer Drivers Needed

Do you have a reliable vehicle and a few hours to spare each month? Volunteer drivers will help older adults get to: Medical appointments | Grocery stores | Community events | Other essential errands

Chore Helpers Wanted

Not a driver? No problem! We also need volunteers to assist with light household tasks such as: Changing light bulbs | Taking out the trash | Tidying up | Seasonal yard work

Why Volunteer?

Make a meaningful impact | Build connections in your community | Flexible scheduling | Receive training and ongoing support

Get Involved Today!

We’re currently recruiting volunteers! If you’re interested in joining this rewarding effort, please contact Sara Fleetham at 651-797-7725 or visit keystoneservices.org/volunteer to learn more and sign up.

Cultural and Arts Programming

Eco-Friendly Collage Cards W7

Using recycled materials, we will create greeting cards for any and all occasions. Come learn some tips and tricks from our W7 librarian, Kathleen, as she leads the class on using found materials to make something new and beautiful to gift to friends and loved ones.

Monday, February 2 from 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Cost:$5/person for supplies

Chinese Calligraphy W7

Returning with four sessions; in partnership with St Paul Public Libraries. Chinese calligraphy is the writing of Chinese characters as an art form, combining visual art and interpretation of the literary meaning. Supplies are provided. RSVP through St. Paul Public Library; sppl.org/events.

Mondays, April 6 - 27 from 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM

Intro to Tarot Cards W7

Explore the art, the complexity and the depth of this extraordinary art form. Tarot cards date back centuries and now there are more options for decks than ever before. But what do all of those pictures mean? What do we know about the history of this system? Is it mystical? Psychological? Religious? In these four sessions, we will only skim the top of this fascinating topic, just enough to whet your appetite.

RSVP by calling 651-298-5493

About Instructor Nell Morningstar Ubbelohde

Nell has been reading Tarot cards since she was a young teenager. Now 50+ years later, she has been reading, teaching and sharing her love of this complex system around the world for several decades.

Mondays, March 23, 30, April 6 and 13 at 5:30 PM - 7:30 PM

Cost: $10/session

West 7th Community Center Update W7

The gymnasium at West 7th Community Center is getting some work done! Keystone has received a grant to update systems in our gymnasium, our bathrooms, water fountains and more! Over the next few months as this work is being completed, programming locations may change or get canceled as needed. But the results are well worth the hassle! We can't wait for the end product. If you have ideas for new programming in our updated space, please feel free to drop us a note or give us a call. In the meantime, we are canceling family movie nights until the gym is once again a usable space.
